

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXX.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 26 1902. 9 A. M.

NO. 58

LANCASTER.

Mr. Jesse Doty left Wednesday night for Louisville to be treated by a specialist.

The Lyceum Company have arranged six standard attractions for the Winter season.

The protracted meeting at Fairview, five miles East of here, has closed with 35 accessions to the Christian church.

Mrs. W. O. Bradley has gone to Lexington to join her daughter, Miss Christine, who is under treatment at the St. Joseph Infirmary.

Messrs. Ed and Napo Price bought two calves from W. S. Ferguson at 44c. Fox & Lawson bought of Elkin & Myers 97 hogs at 64c.

Several of the county schools are still closed on account of scarlet fever and other sickness, and the delay is unfortunate for both pupils and teachers. Judge J. C. Hemphill sold a helper to Jim Parks at 34c. Elkin & Myers bought of Fred Stone a fine helper at 34c and two helpers of John Pound at 34c.

A number of the women from the Herring school-house auxiliary have been invited to the open session of the W. C. T. U. Saturday, and a good attendance is expected.

The Presbyterian membership will observe next Sunday morning as "Rally Day," and not only all the pupils and teachers, but the parents are cordially invited and expected to be present on this occasion.

A Sunday School rally was held Monday at the Presbyterian church, in which Mr. James N. Denny was present as county president, and several other interested workers took an active part in the organization.

The city marshal, S. D. Rothwell, is said to be recovering from his fall at the recent fire and will soon be able to resume his official duties. In the meantime Matt Siler is acting as marshal and J. Mort Rothwell as tax collector.

The geological surveys have just completed their work in Lower Garrard and now the people of the Bryantsville section are eagerly awaiting the arrival of the railroad corps of engineers, locating the line of the Louisville Southern.

The members of the Women's Christian Temperance Union have sent the picture of their late beloved president, Mrs. Margaret Gill, to Cincinnati to have an enlarged copy made and will hang it in their hall, along with that of Miss Frances Willard.

The young people's missionary society of the Presbyterian church will give a "silver tea" on the evening of Oct. 3rd from 7:30 to 10 o'clock. Ice will be served free of charge, but a voluntary offering of a silver coin is expected for the benefit of missions.

The drilling for water continues and a depth of over 700 feet has now been reached. Another accident in the way of breaking a drill has occurred and a workman was again compelled to go to Cincinnati to repair the damage. The boring is still through solid limestone, with no appearance of other formations.

The Robinson monument just erected in the Lancaster Cemetery is one of the handsomest in this section of Kentucky. It is of fine grain light Barre granite, richly decorated with carving executed in the best style. The columns are highly polished, surmounted by a statue of Hope larger than life-size, finished in the most effective work of the true artist. It is the largest and most massive family memorial in Lancaster's beautiful city of the dead. The design and execution were the work of Adams & Son, of Lexington, the same firm that erected the Confederate monument at Harrodsburg last week.

The speaking occurred too late Monday afternoon to be reported for Tuesday's issue, but one of the largest crowds that has been here for a year was present to hear Congressman Gilbert, Judge Sautley, Hon. Robt. Harding and Con W. Bell. Judge Sautley delivered an eloquent address of two hours in which he scored the action of the committee and expressed a wish that the selection of nominees be left to a primary. The judge's friends consider his speech the finest he has made during the campaign and were out en masse to rally to his support. Both Judge Sautley and Mr. Harding have made appointments to speak throughout the county, the judge to speak Friday afternoon at Paint Lick and Saturday afternoon at Bryantsville.

Mrs. Leander Davidson is at home from a visit to her daughter at Richmond. Miss Wagner, of Columbus, O., is the guest of the Misses Gill. Misses Scott and Hughes, of Nicholasville, are guests of Miss Lizzie Hudson. Mrs. Gaines and son, of Lexington, are visiting relatives here. Misses Martha and Helen Gill left Tuesday night for school at Glendale, Ohio. Miss Albert Anderson has returned from a visit to Lexington. Mrs. W. R. Romans and daughter are at home from a visit to Richmond. Mrs. St. Clair has returned to New Orleans after spending the summer in this vicinity. Mrs. Margaret Jones and daughter, of Harrodsburg, are visiting Mrs. Bob McRobert. Miss Blanche Tuggle has returned to Barbourville. Mrs. J. C. Hemphill leaves soon to attend the Cincinnati fall festival. W. M. Bogle has returned to Owensboro. R. H. Batson is back from Chicago. Mrs. Corale Clay, of Richmond, is visiting Mrs. D. L. Walker. Mrs. Louis Landrum and the Misses Marksbury are in Cincinnati.

Clarence Coleman Sees Teddy.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 21.—Dear INTERIOR: As I have been silent for several weeks past, I beg to again intrude on your valuable space for just a few lines from this point. I came up to the Ohio city Friday to take in a few days of the Fall Festival, which opened Monday and will continue until Saturday. The city is now in her glory, richly attired in bunting and flags of all colors and descriptions. Both business houses and residences are decorated. Yesterday was "President's Day" and a royal welcome he received. I saw the crowd and the parade. Thought I had seen great crowds before, but former gatherings glimmer into insignificance when compared to that which greeted Teddy, Waterson's "broncho buster" yesterday. Fully half a million people were on the streets. True that is a lot of people. Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Race, Walnut, Vine and other thoroughfares for miles and miles were simply one gigantic phalanx of human beings, besides every window full, during the parade. The president could never have hoped for a warmer reception or a more cordial greeting than that paid him at Queen City. It seemed as if Ohio and Indiana had turned out en masse to greet him. As Comrade J. B. Stears, of the Jessamine Journal, said: "We democrats can never hope to elect another president after this." He said this laughingly of course. The president's reception and speechmaking here was not a political affair, but simply a guest of Cincinnati and of the Fall Festival. He came on an invitation extended him by the Business Men's Club of Cincinnati, and directors of C. F. P., regardless of party. I had never seen a president and was doubly anxious to see one and see what they looked like. I have seen the Rough Rider now and have heard him speak.

This year's festival is a grand success and the attendance will be much larger than of any previous meetings. The Midway with all its Oriental shows and side shows is here and reaping a harvest as usual.

I met Mr. J. B. Stears, of the Jessamine Journal, on the train coming to the city, and we took in the city together. I am under obligations to him for many favors bestowed. Among the many was a press pass which took us into every show on the grounds.

As it will soon be train time, will ring off for the present. I return to Burnside today. With best wishes to the I. J. and its myriad of readers, I am Very Respectfully,

CLARENCE COLEMAN.

MATRIMONIAL.

George Hunt and Miss Mary Jones were made one at the court-house by Judge Bailey Wednesday.

Over 100 wedding guests were suffocated or burned to death as the result of a fire and panic in Russia.

After 46 years of married life, Mrs. Nancy Bishop sued for divorce from George W. Bishop at Cincinnati.

Ollie Murry, son of William Murry, and Miss Bessie Martin, eldest daughter of Mr. Ben P. Martin, both of Rowland, eloped to Jellico Wednesday and were made one. The bride is an exceedingly pretty and popular young lady and Mr. Murry is to be congratulated on winning such a prize. The groom is in the employ of the L. & N. and is a fine young man.

Samuel J. Tatem and Miss Jennie Payne, both of Crab Orchard, were married in Cincinnati Monday. The two have been lovers for some 10 years and the marriage is no surprise to their friends. The bride is the handsomest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Payne and is a most excellent young woman. She is related to the Severances, of this place, and has been a frequent visitor to them. Mr. Tatem is a clever young business man of his town, who numbers his friends by the thousands. The INTERIOR JOURNAL extends its heartiest congratulations to the happy pair and wishes them the best of everything going.

RAISED FROM THE DEAD.

C. W. Landis, "Porter" for the Oriental Hotel, Chanute, Kan., says: "I know what it was to suffer with neuralgia, dead I did, and I got a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment and I was 'raised from the dead.' I tried to get some more, but before I had 'deposited' my bottle, I was cured entirely. I am telling the truth too." 25c and 50c at Penny's Drug Store.

Kentucky's great trots at Lexington, Oct. 7 to 17, will be the best ever held in old Kentucky or any where else. The great campaigns of the Western and Eastern circuits meet there for the first time. Record breaking and thrilling contests may be anticipated with certainty. The best races ever heard of are in sight and all Kentucky should turn out. Half fare rates are in force throughout the State and the association has provided a musical treat in daily concerts by DeBaugh's famous band.

CHURCH MATTERS.

It is feared that the Rev. H. W. Jones, pastor of the colored Baptist church at Owenton, was killed in the stampede at Shiloh church, Birmingham.

Eld. Joseph Ballou will preach at the Christian church here next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The lawyers of Stanford are especially requested to be present.

John Alexander Dowle, the alleged modern day prophet, is getting into such close financial straits that the indications are he will have to re-Zion—Lexington Leader.

Elder J. T. Sharrard closed his week's meetings at Old Union. There were 23 additions to the church as a result of the meeting—18 by confession and baptism. The meeting was very largely attended throughout.—Paris Kentuckian.

DEVoured BY WORMS.

Children often cry, not from pain, but from hunger, although fed abundantly. The entire trouble arises from inanition, their food is not assimilated, but devoured by worms. A few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge will cause them to cease crying and begin to thrive at once, very much to the surprise and joy of the mother. 25c at Penny's Drug Store.

Kentucky's great trots at Lexington, Oct. 7th to 17th. Half fare on all railroads on account of the best trotting meeting on earth.

MISS ETTA GOOCH

Is the 10-year-old daughter of Mr. S. H. Gooch, of Waynesburg, and is probably the youngest telegraph operator in the State. She can take train orders and Western Union dispatches with the correctness and rapidity of old stagers while she is equally as good at sending messages. She is a beautiful little girl, as her picture shows, and is as bright and entertaining as she can be.
